This year has been just 'great' — especially, annual.

We've had the most fun in your class.
Honestly, I don't see how you've put up with us. I never knew there was so much to putting out an annual. We're all pretty darn proud of it! We certainly have enjoyed working under greatest! May you have the best of luck and happiness in the year to come. We'll come back to see you next year. Love you! Diana

In appreciation for the countless hours of service to us, we, the Class of 1958, dedicate our Aqua Clara to ROGER VAN GORDER.

Clearwater High School

Clearwater, Florida

Dear Students:

The faculty and staff wish you a profitable and enjoyable stay in Clearwater Senior High School. We, as well as you, know there has to be a lot of hard work involved if it is to be profitable. Also, true enjoyment comes from a job well done.

You have a challenge before you. This land is your heritage. It offers you freedom, opportunity and well-being. Its constitution and institutions represent the finest work man has accomplished with all his experiments in government. It is today the last fortress of freedom in the world. Guard it well, for it is being threatened by force from without as well as weakness, selfishness and disunity from within.

The one outstanding lesson the present crisis of the human race is that man must relearn humility, reverence and spiritual faith. Our democracy depends upon an informed and participating citizenry. The American school system provides the opportunity for all to be informed.

If you, the trustees of posterity, the hope of the future, carry out in letter and in spirit your obligation for your heritage, we will not have to worry about the losing of our American way of life.

Sincerely,
Robert Glenn

Mrs. Coleman, second from left, and Cafeteria Staff

Well, here it is, Mrs. M^r. (Can you believe it? I just hope there aren't too many mistakes (mine!)
and almost dared to read it!
It is a huge success in spite of all the gaps we made! I really did enjoy working with you this year. I hope that we will be seeing each other many times in the future. I want to praise you for your patience! The were pretty impatient at times!
I'll never forget this year,
and the Annual staff had a lot to do with its success.
I never can say that I didn't learn anything from Annual.
I know how to count money!
I also learned a lot more about worrying! Thank you for being such a wonderful friend. I'll never forget you.

Love
Grace & Ann

Senior

Mrs M^{rs}:

Well finally!!!! Pardon a small conceited remark, We did a good job on this old book!! I have really enjoyed working with you, not that I worked, but I enjoyed it anyway. Thank you for putting up with me for 3 semesters!!! I know that has been a job! Best of luck to you with next year's staff, at least
I have confidence in them.

Under your guidance
they ought to turn out a fairly decent book, not that it will be as good as this one!!! (conceit again, but not individual conceit this time.)
Thank you again for everything!!!!!!

Clubs

P.S. Did you know about that picture?
You SNEAK! Oh well it turned out okay anyway!

Student Council

The Student Council is the kingpin in our student government. It is composed of members elected in the spring . . . heads of I.C.C., Senate, Sophomore, Junior and Senior classes, and editors of the annual and paper.

The state convention was held in Clearwater this year. It took a tremendous effort on the part of the members, but was fun! They managed to find time for other activities—homecoming, selling decals, and remember the first football dance!

Inter Club Council

Front row: Dick Estes, Mary Gregory, Ann Gorten, Scarlett Pogue, Mary Mackey, Secretary; Tommy Moore. Back row: Vanda Nigles, Cecilia Turner, Judy Freeman, Treasurer; Edmund Whitson, Dale Colninger, Pat Marchiselli, Vice President; Mary Kathryn Upmeyer, Judy Hahn, Mr. Diekmeyer. Not pictured: Sharon Clendenon, President.

The Veeps of all the organizations around C.H.S. make up this arm of the student government. They coordinate the clubs' activities.

This year, under the supervision of Mr. Diekmeyer, the I.C.C. took full charge of the homecoming pep parade and bonfire.

The Senators are elected from each homeroom. Under the supervision of Mr. Rilling, the Senate sponsors a feeling of good will among the students.

The homecoming dance was their job for homecoming. They are in charge of the school pictures and have an annual project.

Audio-Visual Club

The "A V" boys are experts in operating projectors. They not only show films for the school, but also for many civic organizations. They also help with turntable and television sets.

The members make up a part of the Library Council, under the leadership of Mrs. McDaniel and Mrs. Knight. They are eligible to receive an operator's license after the required service.

The Aqua Clara Staff

The last deadline met! It was work but the staff presents it to you now . . . The 1958 Aqua Clara.

With the help of Mrs. McAleenan, the annual was compiled. Within its cover is a mirror of the happenings and precious memories of C.H.S.

best yet. Of course, we had a great staff!

Peppy and pert cheerleaders certainly do lead the way toward enthusiastic times at CHS. Their yells and songs build up Tornado spirit at all football and basketball games and pep rallies.

Still the Red and Grey gals have time to put on dances for teams and participate in the annual sports banquet.

Listen some afternoon in the Gym to the gals brushing up on those "ole" cheers.

YOUR SUPPORTERS

EVERY MORNING . . .

the heartbeat of the world echoes in the columns of The St. Petersburg Times! It is the continuing story of man and events, a daily news pulse told in millions of words from far and near. Being nature's most perishable product, it is born in seconds, yet dies within hours. Whether it is as world-shocking as a declaration of war or as intimate as a family wedding, news is always important. Many hands, many minds and many machines coordinate to transform these messages into the printed pages of The St. Petersburg Times.

Dear Miss Mac,
We sure have enjoyed the little taste of Annual that we've had so far.
We can't wait till next year to do our own, and just watch - we'll be the best staff yet.
Eileen Pfeiffer

Mrs. Mac,

It has been very wonderful to have worked with you the past year and a half. I think the annual turned out pretty good after all, don't you? Next year's staff looks pretty good + if we have to go I'm sure the coming staff is a good one to leave all our troubles and wo's to.

Needless to say, the annual never could have been made without you.

Be good + best of luck,

Monroe
